RAKISH HASHISHIM, FOUNDER

Dear Mr. Stewart,

We have appreciated your continued struggle in the ongoing saga between The Trickster and Everybody Else. In particular, we appreciate your efforts to counter the work of the Illuminati pawn Stephen Colbert.

The Discordian Society would like to offer you an honorary membership. Armed with this membership, you can get unlimited breadsticks for free at any participating Waffle House. (there is a slight chance that, beings from beyond space and time will try to psychically eviscerate you.)

Your instructions for entry are quite simple. You must clearly state one of our code-words or phrases on the air on March 5th, 2008. Any of the following codes or references will be acceptable:

- Fnord
- Repeated references to the numbers 5 or 23
- "Bullshit makes the flowers grow"
- "Hodge Podge"
- Hot Dog Buns
- Golden Apple
- Pineal Gland
- King Kong (he died for your sins, you know)
- Black Iron Prison
- The Pope
- True = False = Meaningless

We hope you will be joining us in our quest for free cakes and delicious pies.

HAIL ERIS, ALL HAIL DISCORDIA!
